

Rodolfo Mario García Paredes has been acting as interim Legal Vice President of Ecopetrol S.A. since February 1, 2024, until a new appointment is confirmed. He has been Head of the Legal Department for New Business and Corporate since October 2023. In his 24 years at the Company, Dr. Garcia has held various notable positions within Ecopetrol, including posts in the Legal Department for Exploration and Production, Legal Counsel for Exploration, and the Head Unit of International Legal Counsel, among others.

Dr. Garcia is a lawyer from Universidad del Rosario, with a specialization in Public Management and Administrative Institutions from the Universidad de los Andes. He began his professional career in the legal area of Arthur Andersen. He joined Ecopetrol in 2000, serving as counsel in many different aspects, including contracting, corporate, exploration and production, transportation, and refining, as well as assisting in Ecopetrol S.A.'s expansion into international markets. He aided the company as a member of the Labor Coexistence Committee for several years and is a current member of the board of directors of several Ecopetrol Group companies. He has lectured on oil contracting at the law schools of Universidad del Rosario and Universidad Externado de Colombia, as well as at the business school of Universidad de los Andes.