

Ana Milena López Rocha was appointed Chief Financial Officer in August 2023. She is a Harvard University Economist and holds an MBA from Columbia Business School. She previously served as Vice President of Finance, Strategy, and New Business at CENIT, the hydrocarbon transportation and logistics subsidiary of the Ecopetrol Group (2018 - 2023). During her career, she held the position of General Director of Public Credit and National Treasury at the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit (2015 - 2017), Capital Markets Manager at Sociedades Bolívar (2014 - 2015), and was a partner at Newfoundland Capital Management (2012 - 2013). She held multiple positions at JPMorgan Chase & Co. in New York and London (2003 - 2009). Ms. Lopez Rocha currently sits on the Board of Directors of Seguros Bolívar, Taesa, Cenit Transporte, Rodeo Midland Basin and Banco Davivienda.