

Santiago Martínez Ochoa

Head of Sustainability and Decarbonization
Ecopetrol

He is a lawyer (Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá) with an MBA (European School of Management and Technology, Berlin), and a master's in Law and Business (University of Pennsylvania).

With more than 15 years of experience, Santiago started his career working for BP. He has stood out as coordinator of Colombia's accession process to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development on environmental-related topics, project manager for International Union for Conservation of Nature Environmental Law Center in Germany, and Head of the Legal Area in the Environment and Sustainable Development Ministry.