

Rodolfo Mario García Paredes was appointed Corporate Compliance Director and Compliance Officer of Ecopetrol as of 16 November 2025. Between 4 June and 15 November 2025, he served in this role in an acting capacity.

He Holds a law degree from Universidad del Rosario and specialization in Public Management and Administration Institutions from Universidad de los Andes. He has more than 25 years of experience in the Corporate Legal and General Secretariat Vice Presidency of Ecopetrol, during which he has held leadership positions such as Hydrocarbons Legal Manager, Exploration Legal Advisory Manager, and New Business and Corporate Legal Manager, among others.

He has developed his professional career across various areas of the Oil & Gas sector, including contracting, exploration and production, transportation and refining, as well as in Ecopetrol S.A.'s internationalization process and corporate affairs. He has also served on several occasions as Acting Corporate Legal and General Secretariat Vice President.